Satori School Update ~ September 3, 2021

Dear Satori Students and Families,

We are almost 4 weeks in and doing great. Classes have worked on their expectations, made connections, and found their rhythm. Every day I am thankful that we are all safely back at school. It is wonderful to hear students learning, laughing, and playing together.

Take some time to read over and explore the contents of this newsletter. Within each monthly newsletter, we will include information on upcoming events, fundraisers, any changes that might be occurring, and other information that we find important, so please read all of it.

Thank you for being a part of our community.

Jo
